

For your Information

Dear Customer,

from now on we will use in our STV PRO series products an new POWER ANALYZER.

This offers a significantly larger display and range of functions for the displayable electrical parameters and connectivity an RS485 interface.

In the transition period there may be mixed deliveries until the previous type has been used up.

The new type will be installed in the case of service. To do this, the front panel must be changed.

NEW

OLD

You can find the Usermanual Deutsch/English on our Website.